

SHOWN AT THE LEFT above is a portion of the 95 piglets raised on county farms which will be slaughtered around Christmas to supply part of the meat needs at the County Home during 1943. At the top right is a Black Angus cow and her twin calves at the county farm near the Eno River. At the bottom right, County Home

—Sun Staff Photos.
Superintendent R. B. Nichols and County Manager D. W. Newsom look over part of the supply of corn raised by the county this year.