

Food For the Winter

—Sun Staff Photo.

MANY THOUSANDS of jars and cans of vegetables and fruit have been canned at the county home this year for use of the inmates of that institution, plus the infirmary patients and the workhouse prisoners through the program carried out by Mrs. E. T. Mangum. Much food was put up for the state prison camp and for the Salvation Army at the cannery during the past summer, also.