Durham, NC - Friends of the Durham Library is pleased to announce there will be a final book sale at Main Library (300 N. Roxboro Street in downtown Durham) on Saturday, February 11 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday, February 12 from 1 to 4 p.m. The book sale will be open to the public, with no Friends membership required. Books will be regular prices, with no bag sale. If the sale is canceled due to weather, it will be rescheduled for the following weekend.

Between January 15, when Main Library closes to the public, and February 14, book donations can be made to Main Library on Tuesday mornings from 9 a.m. until 12 noon only. Book donations can continue to be taken to all other Durham County Library locations open to the public. After February 14, book sale sorting and operations will move to Northgate Mall in a space next to Sears. Plans are being developed to open that space regularly for book sales.

After February 14, book donations will be accepted at that Northgate location on Tuesday mornings from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. If there are very large donations, please call Stephanie Bonestell at 919-560-0190 or email fodldonations@gmail.com for additional instructions.

The Friends of the Durham Library, Inc. is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to fostering the goals of the Durham County Library system. Its mission is to raise and expend funds for materials, services and programs not normally provided for in the Library's operating budget. The Friends work with the Durham County Library administration and staff, the Board of Trustees of the Durham County Library and the Durham Library Foundation for the betterment of the Library, its patrons and the community.

Durham County Library encourages Discovery, connects the Community and leads in Literacy. As a department of Durham County Government, the library furthers Goal 1 of the county's Strategic Plan by enhancing cultural, educational and creative opportunities.
