Durham, NC – Celebrate Black History Month with books by African-American authors! Build your home library and explore the growing collection of books for sale at Books Among Friends. Proceeds go to the Friends of the Durham Library, a nonprofit that helps Durham County Library fund programs, services, and materials. Books Among Friends is inside Northgate—as you exit Sears into the mall, Books Among Friends is immediately on the right.

On Saturday, February 2, hardbacks are $3, trade paperbacks are $2, small paperbacks are 50 cents, and children's books are 25 cents to $1. AV material are $1 - $4 and special books are priced as marked. The sale is open to the public starting at 12 noon. For early access starting at 10 a.m., purchase an annual individual membership ($15) or family membership ($25) at the door or online at www.fodlnc.org.

On Sunday, February 3, all items, regardless of their original prices, can be part of a $10 bag. The bag sale is open to the public, and it's truly a bargain. A half-bag is $5, and items amounting to less than a half-bag are half their original prices. Fill as many bags as you want!

Cash, checks, debit cards, and credit cards are welcome. Proceeds go to the Friends of the Durham Library, a nonprofit that helps the Durham County Library fund programs, services, and materials.
