"I have been to many [book readings], and the most interesting aspect has always been learning things the book rarely tells us: why the author chose to write this book, in this manner, at this time, and why this particular title was chosen." Join author Bill Massey as he discusses the "whys" and "wherefores" that led him to write his book, I Learned More Than Them: True Story. Massey will also share from his classroom experiences as a public middle school teacher.
