Durham County Library Seeks Local Authors for May 2019 Children's Book Author Fair

Durham, NC – Calling all local children's book authors! Durham County Library is currently seeking local authors of children's literature to participate in its Children's Book Author Fair on Saturday, May 4, 2019.

Participating authors will be given five minutes to discuss their books, read excerpts, or share information about their unique writing processes. Authors are also invited to sell signed copies of their books at the conclusion of the presentations.

Interested authors should contact Joel White, Children's Services Manager at South Regional Library, at 919-560-7441 or jwhite@dconc.gov to register or to obtain additional information.

Durham County Library encourages Discovery, connects the Community and leads in Literacy. As a department of Durham County Government, the library furthers Goal 1 of the county's Strategic Plan by enhancing cultural, educational and creative opportunities.
