Join Durham County Library for a fun filled, sensory friendly program for the whole family! Bubble Wonders is fun, inspiring, and educational, and captivates both young and old. Enjoy lots of amazing bubble tricks, including the bubble caterpillar, bubble volcano, the dancing bubble, bubbles inside of bubbles, the bubble cube, kid inside a bubble, and more! This event is free and open to the public.

This program is supported by grant funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the federal Library Services and Technology Act as administered by the State Library of North Carolina, a division of the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources.

Durham County Library encourages Discovery, connects the Community and leads in Literacy. As a department of Durham County Government, the library furthers Goal 1 of the county's Strategic Plan by enhancing cultural, educational and creative opportunities.
