Site Manager Report (S. Fennell)

Staffing: There is only one vacant position that is in the process of being filled, and that is the library assistant in the children’s area. Two positions for Pages have just been filled in the Circulation unit which brings North to being fully staffed by Christmas.

Security: New security cameras have been installed throughout the building and have been very useful in monitoring and addressing behavioral problems. Other security issues have been addressed by Sandra Lovely and Ed Miller.

Statistics: In 2017 the total door count was 71,404 and the 2018 door count has not been made available as of today. Circulated print and audio-visual materials for November 2017 were 91,163 and the same materials as of November 2018 are 91,892. During 2018 the busiest time during the day is between 2:00-5:00 pm. This information for these statistics was provided by OrangeBoy Software.
Children’s Services:

Storytime on the Roof

Storytime on the Roof is being held at The Durham Hotel. It is a great partnership we have where a storytime program is done once during summer and early fall on the roof of the Durham Hotel. It’s a beautiful venue with a beautiful view! We had our Halloween special there on October 24th with 112 attendees. This program always has high attendance with at least 80 people.

Homeschool Learning Lab Culture Days

On the first Thursday of each month, Tiffany Messer-Bass hosts culture days with Desiree Peterson. It was Tiffany’s idea to introduce geography, language, and culture to the homeschool group through using the Learning Lab. Each month they explore a new country or culture, and everyone brings a dish from that culture. The children learn basic language phrases from the represented locations and we try to create a temporary immersive experience in our space with decor so that the families can feel like they are experiencing another part of the world. Cultures so far we have hosted:

1) September- Hispanic Heritage Month
2) October-Germany- Oktoberfest
3) November- France- Armistice Day- End of WWI

In December, we will celebrate South Africa and Day of Reconciliation, the public holiday in South Africa that has been celebrated every year on December 16 since 1994 as a remembrance to the end of apartheid.

Teens Services: Desiree Peterson has an average of 13 regular volunteers and about 11 students who occasionally come from Voyager to help. Of the 13 regular volunteers 9 are tutors, they help the students with homework and spend time with them playing educational games to make learning fun. The tutoring runs for 12 weeks in the spring and fall.

On August 9th, we hosted the Homeschool Resource Fair. Three groups from the State, area libraries, and organizations gave presentations about different services and resources offered to homeschool families. In addition, there were 20 community groups that had booths in the meeting room and a total of 170 people attended. The community groups consisted of different organizations for homeschoolers specifically, as well as groups in the community like the Durham Arts Council and Piedmont Wildlife Center.

On September 28th, the Teen Services Team and the LGBT Services Committee hosted the LGBT Lock In at Southwest. This program was made possible by funds provided through a grant from the Friends of the Durham County Library. Author Robin Talley came to speak, they watched Love Simon, and made cupcakes and bath bombs. It was a chance for LGBT Youth to visit, ask reference questions they might otherwise be nervous to ask a stranger, and speak openly to an LGBT author.

Volunteer Fair

Emily Tobais hosted her second volunteer fair which brought in more than 20 local organizations looking to connect with volunteers and the community, and more than 80 patrons of all ages interested in volunteering. We held one last year as part of the Summer Reading theme (Build a Better World), and it was so popular that we did it again this year in October. (It was rescheduled because of Hurricane Florence.)

Flamenco Workshop

Flamenco Vivo Carlota Santana from New York City came in October and ran an enthusiastically received interactive workshop on the joys of flamenco that had participants dancing and singing along with the troupe members.

Nancy Peacock and Jacki Shelton Green Author Talk

Current Piedmont Laureate Nancy Peacock and award-winning former North Carolina Poet Laureate Jaki Shelton Green held a discussion at North Regional Library in September about the ins and outs of writing historical fiction.

Circulation Services: We received new rotating stands to house TV DVD collection which has been very popular.

Manager Summary:

The team here at North Regional has a great attitude and willingness to do a good job. I am proud to be a member of this team and look forward to what we will do in 2019. We have worked to improve the overall appearance of the building to be more inviting to all that visit. The Friends donated new shelves for their book sales which makes that space, as you enter the door, easier to navigate and more visually pleasing. We will be making changes to the Circulation desk and repurposing the desk in the Children’s area. By the end of December, we will relocate staff who are currently in the study room which is serving as a staff work area to what is now the periodicals room. Those periodicals will be temporarily moved which will allow additional private study area for the public.
