Abstract:
Scope and Content:	The Durham Historic Photographic Archives consists of around 3000 images depicting the history of Durham since 1860. Many of these photographs were collected by PhotoCarolina, a nonprofit organization formed in the mid-1980s for the express purpose of preserving Durham's history in photographs. Additional photographs have been collected since from donors in Durham and elsewhere. Many of the images have three copies: a negative, a slide, and a photograph. Each image has been digitized and has its own description available online. They can be view at http://dcl.li/dhpa .
