Durham-Orange County Medical Society Papers

Title:	Durham-Orange County Medical Society Papers
Inclusive Dates:	1925-1992
Extent of Materials:	3 linear feet
Location:	Duke Storage
Date of Accession:	31-Jan-07
Donor:	Jack Hughes, Harvey Estes
Processor:	Todd Johnson
Scope and Content:	The bulk of the collection consists of correspondence to and from the society's officers between 1929 and 1975. Of particular interest are items related to pioneering public health work, child abuse, sex abuse, impacts of World War II on the medical community, integration of the Society, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, AIDS education, hospitals, physical fitness, the American Cancer Society, free clinics/health screening, tuberculosis, and a Vietnam War protest by Duke University medical students. There is also a narrative history of medical practice in Durham and Orange counties covering the period 1849 to 1992.
Restrictions:	The collection is open for research
Biographical/Historical Note:	Orange County physicians and surgeons formed a medical society in 1903, and it was chartered by the state medical society in 1904. A Durham County society was formed and admitted into the state society in 1905. The two societies merged in 1914 with a membership of 38, mainly Durham practitioners.
