| Biographical/Historical Note: | Every year since 1980 the Eno River Association has presented the Festival for the Eno on the Eno River. It draws thousands of people every year to sing, dance, and make crafts while also learning about natural resource conservation and raising funds for land protection in the Eno River basin. More than 60 hours of music is performed on 5 different stages, there are more than 80 crafts artists with booths, and more than 20 food trucks and vendors. | |
