PAINT WITH DURHAM ARTIST KATE LOUGHLIN

The roles of women in leadership continue to grow and transform!

In recognition, join in creating a community art piece honoring women in leadership. Paint a feather that artist Kate Loughlin will use to create a larger community painting. All ages welcomed!!

APRIL 16, 2022 1-4 PM
THE DURHAM FOOD HALL
530 FOSTER ST SUITE 1, DURHAM,
NC 27701

This is a pass through humanities event, come anytime during event hours

'I ASK EACH PERSON INVOLVED TO CREATE ONE FEATHER.

ON THAT FEATHER, PAINT WITH ME THROUGH WORDS OR IMAGES ABOUT A WOMAN WHO HAS LED YOU, HAD A HAND IN YOUR GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT, OR CONTRIBUTED TO DURHAM'S GROWTH IN ANY WAY.

YOU MAY ALSO CHOOSE TO PORTRAY HOW YOUR OWN EXPERIENCE AS A WOMAN HAS EVOLVED.' -KATE

HEY MIDDLESCHOOLERS SPEAK ON IT! WITH DASAN AHANU

Join us to speak your mind and develop your spoken word, creative writing, and performance skills! Sessions will be led by Durham's own spoken word artist Dasan Ahanu! Ahanu is the co-founder and managing director of Black Poetry Theatre and a founding member and coach of Durham's Bull City Slam Team, leading them to repeat championships! There will be three chances to join in person and learn from one of the best! Registration will open soon and locations/dates will be revealed! Keep an eye on the event calendar at durhamcountylibrary.org

SECOND ANNUAL LIBRARY FEST! THE FOOD EDITION

Library Fest is a community celebration and showcase of the many diverse ways the library can be a part of your life!

This will be a hybrid event with both virtual and in-person events including; small business networking events, food drive for local food bank, children's cooking classes and themed storytimes, teen and gaming programs, local history programs exploring agriculture and foodways, STEAM programming, author talks including culinary historians and cookbook authors, evening programs highlighting the local food scene including restaurants, bars, and bakeries and more!
