Willis P. Whichard of Chapel Hill is a lawyer who, like his subject David Swain, has spent most of his career in public office and the academy. He is the only person in North Carolina history who has served in both the North Carolina House of Representatives and the North Carolina Senate and on both the North Carolina Court of Appeals and the North Carolina Supreme Court. Dean and Professor of Law at Campbell University from 1999-2006, he holds the A.B. and J.D. degrees from the University of North Carolina and the LL.M. and S.J.D. degrees from the University of Virginia.

Justice Whichard was the Founding President of the Durham Library Foundation and served on its board from 2001-2010. He has been a member of the Durham County Library Board of Trustees since 2018 and is currently its vice-chair.
